FRANKFORT, OCTOBER 23, 1886.

Death of Miss E. T. Lewis.

Miss Elizabeth Traverse Lewis, a former citizen of the Woodlake neighborhood, and an aunt of the editors of this paper, died at the residence of her sister, Mrs. Susan R. Price, at Brookside, near Richmond, Va., on Friday, October 15, in the 74th year of her age.

The older members of this community will remember her as a lady of unusual mental attainments; of warm and generous nature; fearless and intelligent in the expression of her views; and altogether one of the loveliest of the old fashioned Virginia ladies of the olden time.

She was born in Spottsylvania county, Va., in August, 1813, came to Kentucky about the year 1832, and resided near Woodlake, this county, until 1882; when she returned to Virginia. She united with the Presbyterian Church in this city about 1842, under the ministry of Rev. J. J. Bullock, D. D., and has ever since, by her life and conversation, borne testimony to the truth and sufficiency of the religion of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Of delicate and nervous temperament, she suffered long and patiently, and at last fell asleep in the blessed hope of a brighter world beyond. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord," for verily "they do rest from their labors and their works do follow them."

Our new Circuit Judge, Hon. Warren Montfort, opened the October term on Monday last. The Judge is no stranger in this community, and we believe will make a firm upright Judge, who will show evil-doers no quarter, enforcing the law alike upon the rich and the poor, the high and the low.

Hon. John S. Gaunt, the new Commonwealth's Attorney did not arrive until Tuesday morning. The business of the Court is being transacted with care and dispatch.

The many friends of Mr. David B. Bell, a former citizen of our county, will regret to learn that he died on Thursday, Oct. 14, at his home in Greenville, Miss., of malarial fever. "Dave," as he was so familiarly known, was our friend in the days "langsyne" at the "Old Stone School House," at Woodlake, and was a whole-souled and upright gentleman.

Hunting, fishing, and persimmon gathering are the most popular amusements of the day among a certain class of young men just now. We do not dare to say that the grand jury's session has anything to do with the sudden fondness of these young men for this class of amusements, but a hint to the wise is sufficient.

The Grand Lodge, Grand Chapter, and Grand Council of Ancient York Masons have been in session in Louisville this week, commencing on Tuesday. Old Hiram Lodge, No. 4, was represented by Geo. A. Lewis, W. M., and Esoteric Lodge, No. 512, was represented by W. S. Caplinger, S. W.

We regret to learn that Mr. Thos. Lillard, of Mercer county, committed suicide on Monday evening, at his residence by hanging in his dining room. This sad event is a peculiarly surprising one, as he was happily situated in every respect in life.

Mrs. John W. McClure was paid, on Saturday, $2,000 insurance upon the life of her late husband, by the Knights of Honor, he being a member of Frankfort Lodge, No. 10, in this city.

Mr. Thos. B. Rodman, son of J. L. Rodman, Esq., and Miss Julia Duvall, daughter of Dr. B. F. Duvall, will be married at the Baptist Church, in this city, on Wednesday evening next, at 9 o'clock. All their friends are invited to be present.

Hon. Sanford B. Thomas, of Scott county, and Miss Louie K. Chiles, of this city, were married at the residence of Col. John L. Scott, "Edge-wood," on Wednesday last, by Rev. George Darsie. Mr. Thomas is a prominent young lawyer of Scott county, and Miss Chiles, is a charming and accomplished young lady. The young couple have our best wishes.

Sam Crawford, a negro convict, sent from Meade county for life for murder, made his escape from the Penitentiary, just after dark Sunday evening, by lashing two small ladders together, placing them against the rear wall, climbing into a guard box on the wall separating the women's yard from the other portion of the prison, and lowering himself to the ground with a rope. He was employed as firemen and was not locked up when the balance of the prisoners went to their cells. He had served eleven years of his term.

Judge Montfort is opening the eyes of recalcitrant and careless witnesses. The habit has been growing in this county, to be very careless about obeying the summons of the sheriff, and frequently cases have been delayed until finally thrown out by this policy. When attachments issue the parties have generally been let off on any kind of excuse. The new Judge called up eight or ten witnesses on Thursday and fined them for not obeying the summons, and announced the new policy in no uncertain terms. Good for you, Judge!

What came near being a very serious fire occurred at the Opera House, at seven o'clock, on Wednesday night. It seems that there was a pile of waste paper and kindling near the coal bunk, under the staging, which was ignited either by accident or design, it is hard to determine which. It was burning quite fiercely when discovered, but was quickly extinguished when our "fire laddies" reached the place. Owing to the dense smoke it was almost impossible to learn the extent of the damage until next morning, when it was found not to amount to more than $10 or $20. By the use of the new cut-off nozzles the fire boys were able to extinguish the fire without the usual damage by water.

We regret to learn of the death of Mrs. Rebecca M. Crutcher, wife of Levi T. Crutcher, Esq., which took place on Thursday last, at the family residence near Jett's Station, this county.

Mrs. Crutcher was in the 82d year of her age, and had been the wife of Mr. Levi T. Crutcher for more than sixty years. For over half a century she had been a faithful and consistent member of the Methodist Church. And that Savior she had so faithfully served in life, was her stay and support at the last.

To the aged and desolate husband, and the large family of children and grand children, left behind we tender our sincerest sympathy in their deep affliction.

Sam McCurdy, who is in jail awaiting his trial for attempting to kill Officer Henry Brown about a year ago, attempted to make his escape Saturday night from one of the upper rooms of the Court House, where the prisoners are at present confined awaiting the completion of the jail, by running an iron poker under the window sill, tying his blankets together and fastening them to the poker. In getting out of the window he slipped, lost his hold on the blanket and fell to the ground, a distance of fifteen feet, alighting on a large stone and a portion of iron railing which had been removed from the court room, and bruising himself up terribly. Mr. P. F. Smith, who was guarding the prisoners, was in the court room at the time, ran out when he heard him fall, with his pistol presented ready to shoot, but the poor wretch exclaimed "don't shoot, I am about dead now." He was taken up, carried into the Court House and a physician sent for, when it was discovered no bones were broken. He has since been suffering a great deal, but will be all right again in a short time.

WHITE HALL.

Col. John L. Scott gave a nice entertainment to his children, on Wednesday evening, at which a number of the young people were present, and enjoyed themselves hugely.

Mr. John E. Kane, Sergeant-at-Arms of the Superior Court, was admitted to the Franklin bar on Monday. Mr. Kane is a thorough gentleman, and promises to make a fine lawyer.

About four o'clock on Thursday evening the water pipe burst, near the corner of Main and Wilkinson streets, and tore things loose at a very lively rate for a short while, until the Water Company's men could be summoned and turn the water off. The damage was repaired on that night and everything is working all right now.

Two young men named Montague and Shea were arrested by officer James Hurst, charged with robbing a stranger of $12.00 at the boarding house of Capt. San. W. Goins, corner of Lewis and Clinton streets, on Wednesday night. The grand jury investigated the matter, on Thursday, and they were indicted for felony and placed in jail to await trial.

There was a storm party at the residence of Mr. Cyrus Calvert, near the mouth of Elkhorn, on Tuesday night. There were quite a number of ladies in attendance, among whom were Misses Mary Bacon, Pearl Polard, Emma Stone, Claudia and Jennie Sullivan, and the Misses Fisher, of Frankfort. There were some twelve or fifteen gentlemen present. All went merry as a marriage bell, and every one went away pleased with the result. The music was furnished by Winter's Band.

A meeting of the students of the late Prof. B. B. Sayre was held at the Court-house on Wednesday night, the 20th inst., at which those present formed a temporary organization by electing Capt. Lewis E. Harvie Chairman and M. P. Gray, Secretary. The following committee was appointed to draft a resolution defining specifically the plan of a permanent organization, which they are to present at another meeting to be held at the Court-house on Wednesday night, November the 3d: Dr. W. H. Phythian, Chairman, J. M. Pendleton, Geo. R. Vallandigham, Uberto Keenon, W. H. Murray. Quite a number of pupils of Prof. Sayre have enrolled their names as members of the Sayre Memorial Association, and a large attendance is expected at the next meeting, Nov. 30.

We are under obligations to Mr. E. A. Fellmer for late files of New Orleans papers.

Two men named Snider and Johnson became involved in a difficulty, on Sunday afternoon, in classic "Craw," when Snider struck Johnson a terrific blow over the head, Johnson then drew his "little pop" and blazed away four times, neither shot taking effect on his game. The men were arrested by Chief Merchant, but released on their own recognizance. Snider had to have his hand dressed by Dr. Brown, he having cut it badly when he struck Johnson.

The parties were tried, on Monday, and Johnson fined $25 and costs for being too handy with his "pop."

Good Results in Every Case.

D. A. Bradford, wholesale paper dealer of Chattanooga, Tenn., writes, that he was seriously afflicted with a severe cold that settled on his lungs; had tried many remedies without benefit. Being induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, did so and was entirely cured by the use of a few bottles. Since which time he has used it in his family for all Coughs and Colds with the best results. This is the experience of thousands whose lives have been saved by this Wonderful Discovery. Trial Bottles free at Jos. LeCompte's Drug Store.
